

Cultural Experience: Japanese Sword

This cultural program provides a rare opportunity to become closely acquainted with Japanese swords. At the Sano Art Museum in Mishima, participants will be able to handle swords of national treasure-class and learn what it is that makes them so highly valued. A special lecture on Japanese swords and related topics will be given by Watanabe Taeko, Director of the Museum.